

DECLARATION OF DECONTAMINATION

Legal regulations and the protection of our employees and operating equipment require this signed declaration of decontamination before your order can be processed. Therefore, it is absolutely necessary to send along this statement for any repair or maintenance job.
Please fix it outside of the packaging with which you send equipment to us.

1) Information about the sender

Company  Phone
Street  Email
ZIP, City  Fax

Your order number

Responsible contact person

2) The following equipment has been thoroughly cleaned and is free of hazardous residues

Device type  Year of construction
Serial No.  Site of operation

3) Which media the device above came in contact?

4) Characteristics of the media listed in section 3:

- toxic to                       explosive                       biohazardous                       corrosive
- toxic                               flammable                       harmful to health                       radioactive
- other:

Purging and cleaning medium:

- The unit is free from any contamination
- The unit does not contain any used filter materials
- Condensate containers are empty and rinsed

We confirm, to have truthfully completed to the best of our knowledge this declaration completely. The shipment will be in accordance with all laws that apply to the packaging, shipping, and labeling of dangerous substances.

The sender is responsible for all damage caused by contamination, not marked decontamination and insufficient decontamination, of the item sent to us, liable.

Name of responsible person in block letters

Company stamp

Title & function

Place, date

Signature